AACL ANNUAL FAMILY CONFERENCE

Grant Application 2006

Please fill out application and fax to 780.453.5779
Deadline for Application: February 17, 2006

AACL has a limited number of grants available to support individuals with developmental disabilities, families, volunteers and staff to attend the AACL Annual Family Conference. Priority will be given to individuals with developmental disabilities and families.

The Conference is intended to:

- provide an opportunity to address issues of importance to families, self-advocates, advocates, volunteers and professionals;
- foster a sense of connectedness among families, self-advocates, volunteers and professionals;
- create an opportunity for renewal by sharing stories of struggle and success;
- create an atmosphere in which families, including their sons and daughters, feel welcome and comfortable; and
- raise awareness of critical issues as we look towards the future.

Important things to know about your grant application:

- Applicants must describe how they will benefit from the conference.
- The grants are to be used only for the purposes stated. If the grant is not used to attend the conference, it must be returned to AACL.
- Applicants may request assistance from AACL in preparing their grant application.
- Applicants may request clarification as to the reasons for a refusal or approval of only a portion of their grant request.
- The grant application MUST include sufficient information to be properly reviewed.
- Applicants must be Alberta residents.
- Use of grant monies must be reported in a timely, detailed manner. Failure to report properly may result in a request to repay grant monies.
- Grants may be provided to a maximum of $700 per family.

* Information sheets A & B and Budget Form must be completed with as much detail as possible and returned to AACL. ****
